#DixonsTogether

Welcome

We're delighted to be welcoming you to our 2025 Dixons Conference, focussing on the theme of joy.

We are reflecting on the role that joy plays in our schools, where we strive to provide safe, stimulating and joyful environments in which our children can thrive. We are also reflecting on the importance of joy in our work-places; in our offices, staff rooms, corridors and car parks, where we build and foster relationships that support us all to flourish.

One special element of our conference this year is our spotlight on our community. We have always known the value of our special Dixons community and our conference unashamedly prioritises us coming together outside of the boundaries of phase, subject or team. So we want to reflect on joy together as our Team Dixons community, but also to reach out beyond this. Out into the streets, cities, families and groups where we are located. Increasingly, we need to work side by side in our local communities to create the right conditions for our students to fully engage and be proud of their roots. We want our community focus to allow us to deepen these relationships, and our knowledge of what makes our communities tick.

We have crafted our day to bring us all together, then to provide opportunities to focus on one aspect of joy in our role, and lastly, to spend time alongside colleagues, old and new, sharing a common purpose and enriching our respective communities.

And finally, we also know the power of self-determination to motivate us, especially since our conference last year. As such, please make the most of our shared time together and your individual session choices, to learn about joy from and with others. And most importantly enJOY the day.

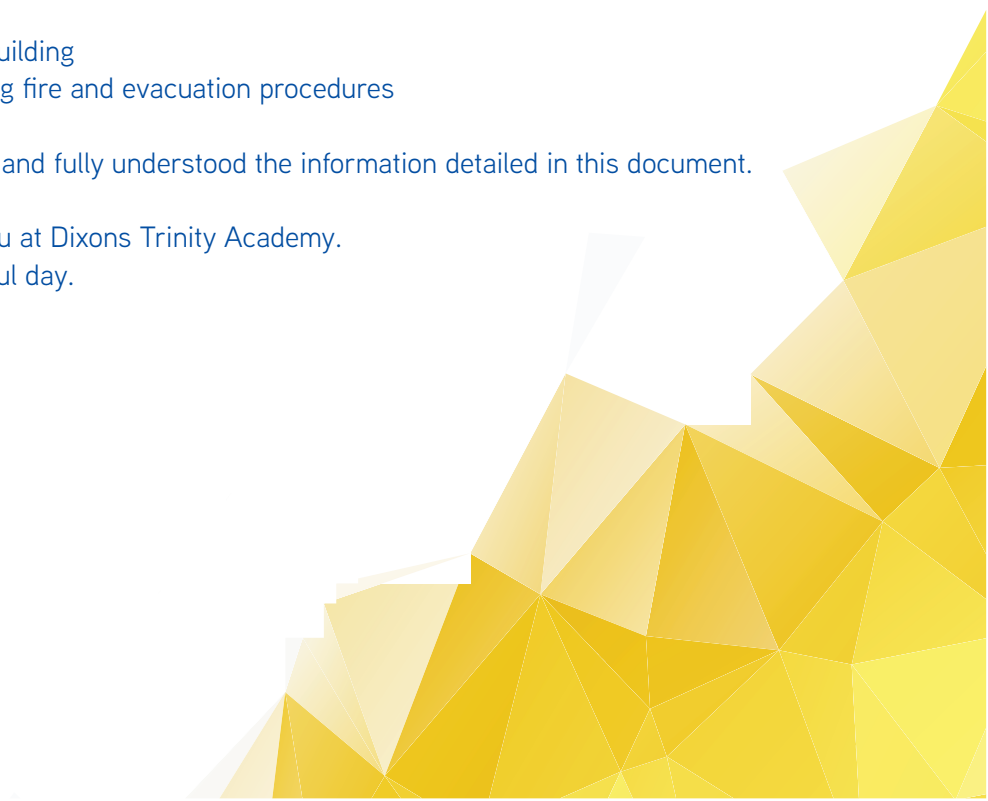

This pack contains all the information required, including:

- travelling to Dixons Trinity Academy
- parking when you arrive
- the full floor plan of the building
- safety messages regarding fire and evacuation procedures

Please ensure you have read and fully understood the information detailed in this document.

We look forward to having you at Dixons Trinity Academy.
